Brad Holmes - Conductor

About the Conductor

Brad Holmes conducts the University Choir and is the Director of Choir Programs at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois. Dr. Holmes received the M.M. degree in conducting from the University of New Mexico and the D.M.A. degree in choral music from Arizona State University. Previous postings range from Choral Director for the New Mexico Symphony Orchestra to church choir positions; from public school teaching to conducting light opera in civic theatres. Prior to coming to Millikin, Dr. Holmes was Associate Director of Choirs at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa.

Choirs under Brad Holmes' direction have sung in every state but Alaska (and in thirty-three countries). In 2000 he was a Visiting Fellow at Cambridge University working primarily with the Choir of Clare College. He has returned to England for guest-conducting engagements in Windsor and Manchester. Other invitations include engagements in the Far East conducting choirs from Japan, Korea, China and the Philippines. Dr. Holmes' domestic guest-conducting schedule has included All-State, regional ACDA Honor Choirs, District festivals and church music clinics throughout the United States.

In his eighteen years at Millikin University, Dr. Holmes has overseen the growth of the choral program to five traditional choirs and a variety of smaller vocal ensembles involving 300 singers and eight staff. The Millikin University Choir has toured internationally to Norway, Russia, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Haiti, Puerto Rico, China, Taiwan and England. Under Dr. Holmes' direction, the choir has produced four CDs on Millikin's First Step Recording label. In the past decade, the choir has performed for three regional conventions of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA). Their recent performance before the National Convention of ACDA in Miami garnered new attention on the choir's approach to tonal variety.

Dr. Holmes responsibilities at Millikin include teaching Choral Techniques and Conducting. He is artistic director for Millikin's Christmas Vespers, which attracts 7,000 people annually. He frequently contributes arrangements to First Step Publishing, Millikin's student-run publishing house. His arrangements have also been published by Santa Barbara Music Press.
